A Public Demonstration of the "Caloric" Fireless Cook Stove

Begins in This Store, Monday, May 15th.

Conducted by a special demonstrator of the Caloric Co. In the meantime your attention is called to the following:

Book of Home Menus

Showing "What to Serve" and "How to Set and Decorate a Table."

A book to be highly prized, containing table settings beautifully illustrated in natural colors. Also twentyfour menus and more than one hundred recipes for cooking in a

"Caloric" Fireless Cookstove

You will be amazed at the seemingly impossible, almost unbelievable, things it does. It actually bakes cake, pie, bread, biscuits, etc., and actually roasts meats, chicken, game, etc., without any fire whatever except that supplied by the radiators (heated a few moments over a flame the same as an ordinary flat iron), as well as steams, stews, boils, etc.

You can cook practically everything for the family table, better and more wholesomely, more nutritiously, richer in flavor and at less cost than is possible any other way. You can do so the year round, summer and winter.

Fill out and bring this coupon to our store and got this beautiful Book of Home Menus FREE.

WATKINS IS SENTENCED.

Gets 18 Months on Public Roads for Killing John Hill Bunting.

Killing John Hill Bunting.

Asheville, N. C., May 6.—Overruling a motion made by the defense for a new trial on the ground that one member of the jury which had found F. C. Watkins guilty of manslaughter had expressed an opinion relative to the guilt of the accused, Judge Webb this afternoon sentenced Watkins to the public roads for eighteen months.

Watkins shot and killed John Hill Bunting and seriously wounded Paul Collins, at Black Mountain, in August, 1909. His first trial resulted in a jury disagreement. He claimed he shot in gelf-defense, after being called to quell a disturbance at a hotel where Bunting and Collins were guests.

Sons of Veterans Hold Meeting. Other Betersburg News Notes.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 103 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., May 6.

Police Justice Plummer this merning George F. Ormsby, of Washington, behis former wife, Mrs. Amy L. Ormsby, a temporary resident of Petersburg, with having used a forged transcript of proceedings in a Washington court in the Hustings Court of this city in March in a habeas corpus procedure. The justice dismissed the case to-day for want of jurisdiction, and declined to hear any statement from Ormsby as to what he expected to prove. The defendant was represented by Paul Petiti.

Pettit.
Commonwealth's Attorney R. II.
Mann, who was present to watch the case, warned Ormsby that if he remained in Petersburg and further interfered with Mrs. Ormsby, he would either have him put under bond for his good behavior or have him brought before a commission of lunacy for examination as to his mental condition.
The complainant promised to give no amination as to his mental condition. The complainant promised to give no more trouble here to his former wife.

Mr. Mann told Ormsby that he did not believe a word of his charges, but, on the contrary, believed that he was engaged in persecuting his wife. So far as Petersburg is concerned, this case is ended.

Busch's Fine Paid.

The fine of $25 imposed by President Williams on Manager Busch, of the Petersburg team, for alleged improper conduct on the buschall park here this week has been paid under protest. Busch probably did too much kicking. An appeal will be taken.

In this connection it may be said that in the Police Court this morning four young men were fined $5 and costs each for disorderly conduct at the baseball park on Thursday after-Ynoon. The disorder is said to have been brought about by a decision made by Umpire Hraderson deemed to be unjust to the home team. The evidence in court this morning was that the umpire was followed out into the street after the game by a large crowd of fans, who called him "thief, robber, liar," etc. The four young men, while in the crowd, denied that they had used such language, or that they intended any insult to the umpire. They paid their fines.

Death of Mrs. Pearman.

Mrs. James L. Pearman died last night in the Petersburg Hospital, where she was operated on for appendicties on Wednesday. Her health had been delicate for some time. Sho was about thirty years old, and is survived by her husband and two children.

Sons of Veterans Meet.

An interesting and largely attended meeting of A. P. Hill Cump. Sons of Confederate Veterans, was held last night. There were present also Past Commanders T. S. Beckwith, J. E. Whitehouse and Homer Atkinson, of A. P. Hill Camp. C. V., who addressed the Sons on the importance of their organization and of their work. The committee appointed to ascertain the exact spot where Lieutenant-General A. P. Hill was killed in 1855 made a partial report, and will make a fuller and more definite one later. The Sons intend to place a marker to designate the spot of General Hill's death.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

DAVIS—Be it resolved by the Common Council of the city of Richmond, That it has learned with the most sinterest sorrow of the death of CHARLES PRICE DAVIS, a member of the body from Clay Ward, and we herewith record our high estimate of him as a man and citizen. He discharged the duties of his position as a municipal representative with a conspicuous fidelity, and was ever watchful of the interests of the city that he loved with true loyalty and devotion. His life had won for him the respect and esteem of all who knew him, and his death has cast a shadow not only on the hearts of those who are nearest and dearest to him, but on the pathway of many a true and loving friend.

Resolved, as a further mark of our regard and esteem, That we extend to the family of the deceased our deepest sympathy.

Resolved, as a further mark of our regard and esteem, That we will attend his funeral as a body, and in vite the Board of Addermen and officers of the city government to unite with us in this last sad tribute.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the daily press, a copy furnished the family of the deceased, and that his desk and chair in the Council chamber by draped in mourning for thirty days.

Adopted by the Common Conecil. May 1, 1211. BENT, AUGUST.
